

SCOUTS CLIMB THE WALLS AT ROCKVILLE CLIMBING CENTER

EHT PD Troop 94 Family Newsletter

JANUARY 2016

Our Journey to Excellence

Journey to Excellence is a point-based system for measuring Scouting success. Points are earned by meeting certain objectives. Troops are rated by:

- ✓ Participating in Service Projects
- ✓ Camping and Outdoor Activities
- ✓ Retaining Scouts in the Troop
- ✓ Planning and budgeting
- ✓ Training Scout Leaders and more.

We have achieved the highest level: GOLD

Need a Troop T-Shirt?

Troop T-shirts will be ordered soon, so if you want one or need one, be sure to let SPL Jeffrey know. T-shirts start around $10 but there are other products available.

Citta Shooting Sports Trip

Our Scouts participated in a trip to Citta for shooting sports. A good time was had by all.

Need A Board of Review?

Need a BOR? Call Ann Quicksall, the new Troop Advancement Coordinator. Her number is (609) 601-1992.

Merit Badge Fair

February 20th Stockton University is hosting a merit badge fair. To register go to:

www.jerseyshorescouts.org/mbacademy

Online registration is encouraged.

Merit badge sessions will be offered in:

- Engineering
- Weather
- Fire Safety
- Coin Collecting
- Archery
- Hiking
- Medicine
- Disabilities Awareness, just to name a few.

Trip to Sterling Hills Mining Museum ~ Ogdensburg, NJ.

A Trip to Sterling Hills Mining Museum is in the works. This is the only museum in New Jersey offering mine tours, mineral collecting, educational classes and historical exhibits.

Troop Advancements

✓ Danny Tepper: Gold Eagle Palm!
Congratulations!!

Rockville Climbing Trip

Several Scouts participated in the trip to Rockville Climbing Center in Hamilton. A good time was had by all. The Scouts were joined by Troop 55. They are looking forward to joining us again December 9th. Save the date!

